I remember one time sister ran up on him while he was horseback riding and she had crutches from when he wrecked his iroc z and smashed his legs , horse started bucking, fishing, swimming and riding in sick trucks and jeeps were my earliest memories and it was with my brother, dad, uncle Marty, cousin Josh, uncle Fred, my mother and her sisters and their respective husbands around that time. some of my first memories retained were jeep willys , badass trucks and super old cars. the best ever.fishing, swimming.,guitar music and sick typography. Im forever thankful for those things and that i could share such adventures.
